Thalie Art Foundation's mission is to support production and promotion of projects in the art and culture fields in order to educate and pass down. In 2017, the foundation will open ThalieLab in Brussels, whose purpose is to bring forward thoughts and actions processes by inviting visual artists, philosophers, theorists to think about « a better living together» concept and by promoting artistic projects committed to societal themes.

PRESENTATION

The residency welcomes artists and curators. The artistic proposal must take place in and around Brussels, European capital with a great cultural and social diversity. The project is to be in collaboration with local people involved with the cultural and social life of Brussels. The Thalie Art Foundation Residency's goal is to implement and to involve to a new approach to contemporary creation by involving the audience as a protagonist of the artistic project and by supporting projects showing diversity of work processes and forms of visibility (Films, Performances, Seminars, Editions, Exhibitions, Conferences ...).
